

APRIL 2024

Earth Month

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	1 Encourage students to walk bike, and roll to school and share the results	2 Check your consumption using the Ecological Footprint Calculator	3 Host competitions in the classroom to encourage students to walk and roll to school	4 Use this toolkit for a lesson or activity in the classroom about food waste	5 Use recycled items to make art in the classroom	6 Volunteer at beach cleanups and rallies
7 Check out Silicon Valley Bike Coalition for events happening in your area	8 Organize an Earth Day poster contest at school	9 View routes involving multiple bay area transit agencies using SF Bay Transit	10 Keep the air clean by encouraging community members to limit idle engines	11 Attend Family Friendly Biking Basics to learn the basics of biking for transportation	12 Encourage students to read environmental books	13 Watch Idle Threat to learn about the impact of idling.
14 Use this interactive toolkit to for a healthy school environment	15 Use the SamTrans trip planner to replace your usual car ride with public transit	16 Implement a lesson plan or community impact project from the County Office's earth day resources	17 Collect seeds and identify native plants in your school garden!	18 Use this Idle-Free Toolkit for a healthy school environment	19 Join a walking litter bus and collect trash around or on the way to school	20 Learn the benefits of biking on your daily commute
21 Plan your commute with Commute.org's individual quiz	22 Celebrate Earth Day!	23 Have students complete this fun Safe Routes to School scavenger hunt!	24 Encourage students to brainstorm ideas about how to save the Earth!	25 Do these activities combining art and science with your class	26 Have parents and teachers lead students to school on bikes	27 Use this interactive toolkit to fix an unsafe zone near your school
28 Learn how to start a Green Team Club to raise awareness	29 Temporarily transform parking spaces and curbs with pop up art and plants	30 Read Look Both Ways: a Tale Told in Ten Blocks and check out related activities

Notes

